This annual is dedicated to all the memories of school that each person carries with him: "Take out a piece of paper," "You hammerhead," stealing pens from lockers, wearing other people's glasses, the Destiny Game, lounge, "Take five laps," a candy machine that never worked, playing pepper, burning popcorn, new teachers, old friends. . . . and all the good times.

"I REMEMBER"

I remember looking back,
To a time that used to be.
A time which lingers in my mind,
When I was young and free.

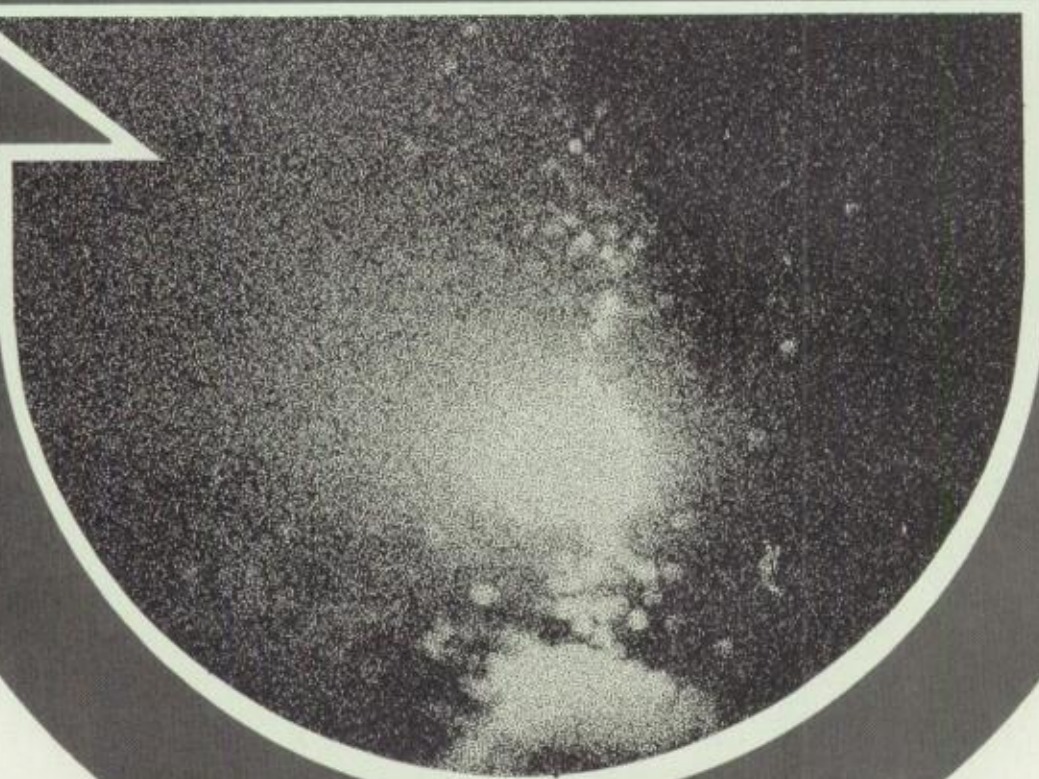

A time when school and growing up
Were all that lie in store--
When all of life lie up ahead
Beyond an open door.

Motto:

*"Tonight we take off,
 where shall we land?"*

We May Never Pass This Way Again

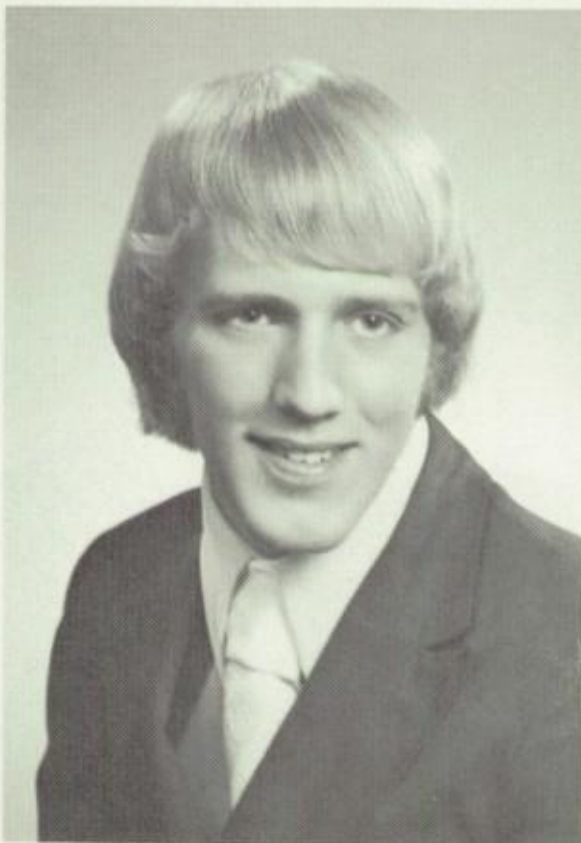

*Life, so they say, is but a game, and they let it slip away.
 Love, like the Autumn sun, should be dying but it's only just begun.*

*Like the twilight in the road up ahead,
 they don't see just where we're goin',
 And all the secrets in the universe,
 whisper in our ears and all the years
 Will come and go and take us up, always up.
 We may never pass this way again.*

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS GONE—THE WORLD LIES AHEAD

As Senior were warned of the coming "Protest and Change - of 1974-84," by Commencement speaker Dr. Zinser, they were confronted by memories of past accomplishments and the responsibilities of the future. The traditional symbols of graduation - cap, gown, and diploma --signified the end of High School and its activities and a new beginning of experiences yet to be encountered.

The last moments as a senior

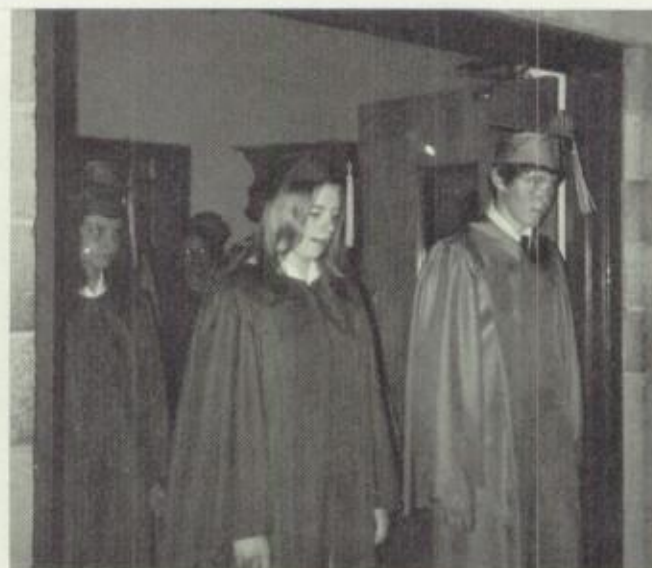

Isn't it time yet?

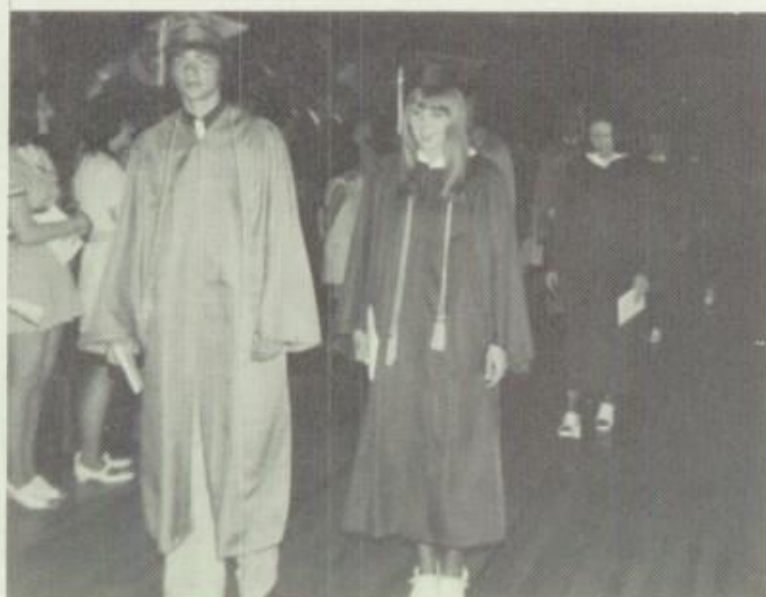

I'm so nervous

Kevin and Connie lead the way

Which foot do we start with?

We made it!!

And tomorrow --the world!!

You must have been a beautiful baby,
 You must have been a beautiful child,
 When you were only starting,
 To go to Kindergarten,
 I bet you drove the other kids wild.
 You must have been a beautiful baby,
 Cuz baby look at you now!

I'm the one on the left.

John WAYNE Bush

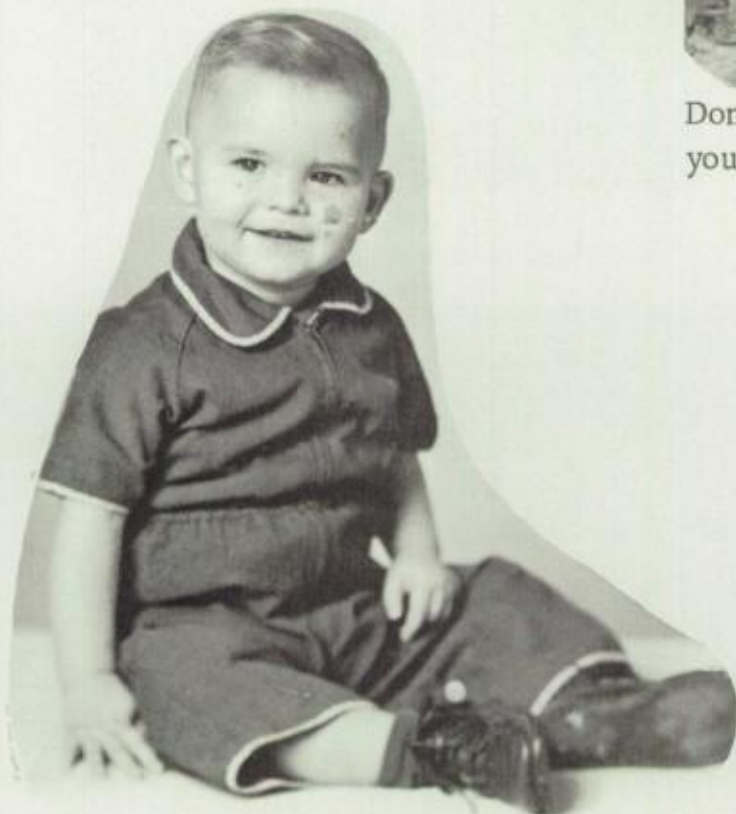

What's up Doc?

Don't make a move stranger, we've got you covered.

Aw Shucks!

I remember faculty

School Board: SEATED: G. Baumeier, secretary, D. Osten, K. DeWitt, W. Gethman; STANDING: R. Denbow, president, J. Cashman, R. Bruene.

NO ONE COULD DO WITHOUT THEM

No school could run without its administrators. Every problem that comes up from interpreting school policy to solving students problems is handled by the superintendent and the principals. And right behind them are their efficient secretaries--typing bulletins, filing letters, answering telephones--and always smiling cheerfully.

Mr. Kalm--Secondary Principal

Mr. Cashman--Superintendent

Mrs. Maas--Secondary Secretary

Mrs. Frericks--Office Aid

Mrs. Baumeier--Superintendent's Secretary

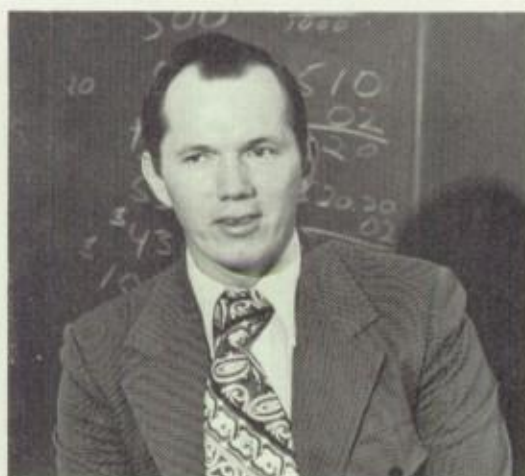

Mr. Hoffman--Elementary Principal.

AND DON'T FORGET THE TEACHERS

Dissecting frogs, struggling to comprehend mathematical equations, reading "Romeo and Juliet," typing furiously on a timed writing, studying the world's peoples and their cultures--these are only a few of the things that go on in the many classrooms of this school. But every room has one thing in common--in each there is a teacher who is dedicated to his job and the students he teaches.

Mr. Lund--Business, Boys' basketball

Mr. Lamb--Business

Mr. Pilcher--Social Studies, Track

Mr. Hildahl--Counselor, Math

Mr. Lemke--Math

Mr. Moe--History, Government

Mrs. Raudabaugh--English

Miss Anderson--English

Mr. Wegner--History, Football

Mr. Wickersham--Industrial Arts

Mr. Green--Band

Mr. Moen-Physical Education

Miss Robertson--Vocal Music

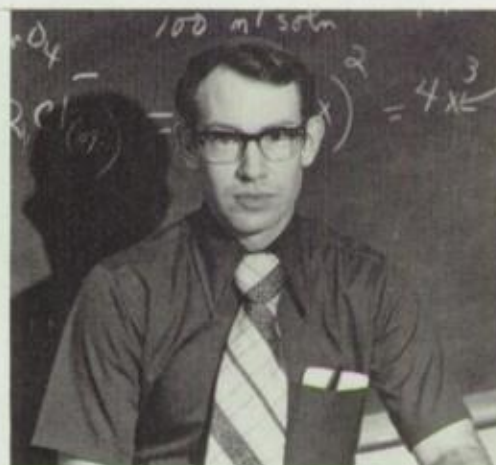

Mr. Thorson--Art, Junior High English

Miss Lance, Mrs. Lineberry--Home Economics

Mrs. Moe--German

Mr. Fagan--Science

Mr. Kuper--Science

Mrs. Roberts--Librarian

Mrs. Bott--Librarian

Mrs. Thorson--Elementary Librarian.

Teachers aren't only found in the classroom--handing out tests and lecturing. They are involved in some way in every activity taking place throughout the year. Whether it is eating a dinner cooked by the Home-Ec girls, playing tug-of-war at a pep meeting, participating in a benefit basketball game, or cheering a team to victory, you'll always find the teachers ready to lend a hand and offer a word of encouragement.

RUNNING SCHOOL TAKES TIME, ENERGY, EFFORT

Planning menus, cleaning the whole school, and transporting students to and from school are some of the tasks that keep the service people busy. They put many hours into the maintenance and efficient operation of the Gladbrook School with the enrollment of 451 students.

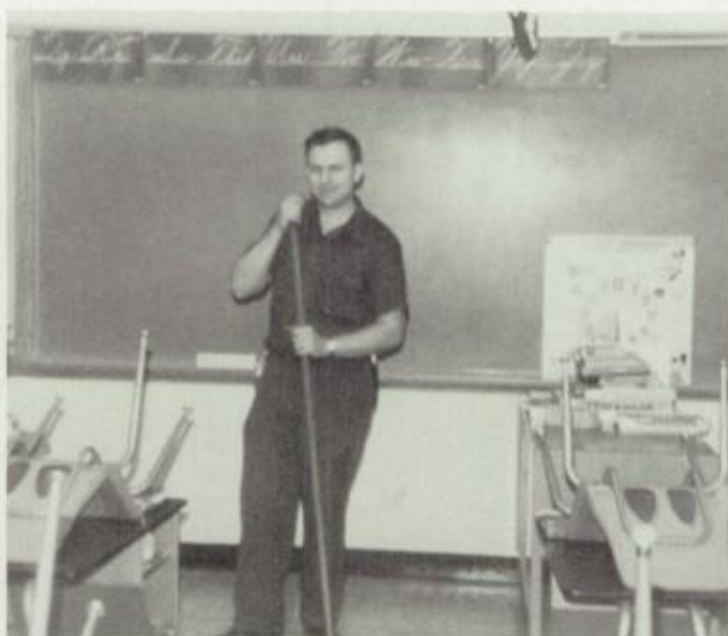

Those in charge of transportation are: Mr. Irvin Ladehoff, Mr. Henry Mentel, Mrs. Ruth Mentel, Mrs. Ilene Rosenburger, Mrs. Vivian Schade.

Earl Claussen is responsible for maintaining Junior and Senior High School and their many activities.

Preparing meals for the school are Gladys Boldt, Evelyn Bern, Audrey Thompsen, and Elaine Thede.

In charge of maintenance in the Elementary department is Kenneth Lowry.

When the halls are empty, Ruth Jacobs is busy cleaning for the next day.

WE HAVE SPIRIT—YES, WE DO

The football cheerleaders spelled out a Panther Victory this year. They worked hard trying to raise spirit and also money for new uniforms. They had a "little added incentive" with their mascot, Suzy DeWitt. These spirit raisers are: K. Oettscen, S. Shouse, P. Bott, K. Bruene, K. Osborn, D. Woebeking, D. Oettchen, W. Beenken.

The wrestling cheerleaders were up in the air with spirit this year. The four hard-working cheerleaders are: D. Oettchen, K. Bruene, P. Bott, K. Osborn.

These basketball cheerleaders were not only far out but also fanned out with spirit. The spirit was increased by their mascot, Beth Ann Miell. S. Shouse, W. Beenken, K. Oettchen, D. Woebbeking, really made the cheering enjoyable.

Lifting the Junior Varsity spirits were these cheerleaders. D. Halverson, S. Faircloth, L. Gilchrist.

The cheerleaders really showed their spirit with signs.

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

Even the rain couldn't drown the spirit of the crowd on Homecoming night 1973. The cheerleaders and football team waded through knee deep mud to give the crowd what they came for. There was a terrific turn-out of students, teachers and alumni to support our Panthers with a seemingly unending stream of cheers and applause.

SINGING AND SWINGING THROUGH THE DECADES

In March the Vocal Dept. presented a program dedicated to those wonderful days of yesteryear. The audience was treated to dances and songs, chorus girls, a bank robbery, and an adventure with Davy Crockett to name only a few of the highlights of an enjoyable evening.

DELEGATES FOR A DAY

In April, the U.N. members traveled to Cedar Falls for the state Model U.N. Meeting, and represented Jordan. Through proposing bills, raising motions and debating, the members got an idea as to how the real United Nations is run.

In May, the Juniors hosted the Junior-Senior Prom with the theme of "American Graffiti." It was a nostalgic evening of fun and entertainment featuring, dancing, skits, and a finale consisting of the 8 male servers packing into a phone booth. Following the Banquet "Cantus" supplied the music for the dance. All night bowling, and a breakfast were held for those who stayed out all night.
